As Salaamu alaikum wa rahmatullaahi wa barakaatuh

Dear Parents and Carers, It's hard to believe that we've come to the end of the first half term – time flies when you're having fun (and when you are working REALLY hard!) . Al Khair Prep have had a very eventful two weeks, We have said goodbye to Ms Saima in Reception class and Ms Fauzia in Year 1B class. KS1 parents have attended workshops and Parents evening.

Al Khair Prep School aims to provide the children with a firm understanding of what it means to be a member of a diverse and vibrant British society. In last weeks KS2 Assembly., Ms Mona , Year 4B teacher, explained to children the significance of Diwali and how it is celebrated around the world. We hope both parents and children enjoy a much needed rest in the Half Term, and look forward to seeing you all Monday 28th October 2019

Islamic Reminder

ONE UMMAH
ONE BODY
ONE UNITY

THE BELIEVERS IN THEIR MUTUAL KINDNESS, COMPASSION AND SYMPATHY ARE JUST LIKE ONE BODY. WHEN ONE OF THE LIMBS SUFFERS, THE WHOLE BODY RESPONDS TO IT WITH WAKEFULNESS AND FEVER – PROPHET MUHAMMAD (PBUH)

Adhan Recitation

Each Week, the school will be asking a child from Years 4,5 and 6 to recite the Adhan before Zohr Salaah and Jummah Salaah. Inshallah all children who have learnt the adhan will be chosen to perform.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Black History Month is marked annually, where recognising and valuing the inspirational individuals and events that have shaped the black generation. During Black History Month, we remember and celebrate the important people from the past and also those who contribute to and help our society today. At Al Khair Prep, we celebrate the diversity in our school. The Quran reminds us:

O mankind! We created you from a single (pair) of a male and a female, and made you into nations and tribes, that you may know each other (not that you may despise (each other)). Verily the most honored of you in the sight of God is (the one) best in conduct (most righteous). And Allah has full knowledge and is well acquainted (with all things)... The Quran: 49:13

Year 3B English Lesson

Children of Year 3B have been learning about following instructions and enjoyed making sandwiches, which were thoroughly enjoyed at lunch time.

Half Term Reading Challenge

Al Khair Prep school, will be introducing their Reading Challenge, this half term. The aim of the challenge is to get children reading more, but also for them to read different books: new authors, new genres and more challenging books. The Half Term Reading Challenge is open to all children and is designed for all reading abilities. Please help your child, to choose a book on the theme of 'Water' and also with their book review.
